Breeder Code of Ethics

The SDCCS has adopted a Code of Ethics as a guide for members whose highest aim is the welfare and improvement of the Sporting Dog breeds. When engaged in any activity involving Sporting Dogs, members agree to follow this Code of Ethics and to refrain from activity that would be detrimental to the breeds or the SDCCS. It shall be the duty of each member to actively strive to improve and advance Sporting Dogs as a Group by acknowledging the standards as published by the American Kennel Club.

 Our MISSION is...to further the advancement of all AKC Sporting breeds, to do all in our power to protect and advance the interest of the Sporting dogs and to encourage sportsmanlike competition at all events.

The Sporting Dog Club of Colorado Springs is open to anyone who owns or has a fondness for any of our fantastic sporting dog breeds. Our members are involved in a wide variety of activities with their dogs such as conformation, obedience, field work, agility, therapy dog work, tracking, and of course . . . just playing in the backyard.
